SPECIAL NEEDS EMERGENCY INFORMATION

Any resident of Moorestown Township that would like to provide the Police Department with information regarding a SPECIAL NEEDS family member, may complete and submit the Special Needs Emergency Information Form, please attach a photo, if available. The form may be dropped off or mailed to the Moorestown Township Police Department, 1245 North Church Street, Suite 2, Moorestown, NJ 08057, or emailed to Chief Lieber llieber@moorestownpd.com as a scanned document.

Once the form is received, Burlington County Central Communications will include an “address flag” in the Department’s CAD system and include the form in a special binder maintained at all times in the dispatch center. Participation in this program is voluntary. The information provided may assist Police Department personnel in properly interacting with you and your family. The form was designed by the organization “Parents of Autistic Children” to serve as an important medium for emergency responders to better serve the public. The information you provide is secure and only available to law enforcement.

Residents should also be aware of Project Lifesaver as offered by the Burlington County Sheriff’s Department through the Office of Emergency Management (OEM) at 609-265-3788. Project Lifesaver utilizes radio technology in combination with a specially designed transmitter bracelet to help locate persons who have a tendency to wander due to illness or disability (Autism, Alzheimer, etc.).
