

Moorestown Township Police Department Incident Reports

Date: February 3, 2010

1. 10:17 AM-Mischief Complaint-Resident of Bowman Ln. reported that sometime overnight someone threw eggs onto their vehicle. Vehicle was parked on street in front of their residence.

2. 5:29 PM-Attempted Child Luring-Moorestown Police responded to the area of N. Lenola Rd. & Harding Ave. for the report of an attempted child luring. A 13 year old female reported that as she approached that intersection, a W/M, approx. 60 YOA with white hair, clean shaven, large nose, blotchy face wearing a red Phillies cap and dark cap pulled up in what was described as a silver, possibly 4 door Nissan Altima with NJ registration first character "W". The subject asked the female "Excuse me, can you please get in my car and help me find my kid". The child refused and then ran home calling police. The subject/vehicle was last seen S/B on Lenola Rd.
